

Call In For Weight Training Program

The Cohasset Recreation Department will accept registration over the telephone for an aged 14 and over weight training program. The program will allow participants to work out on the universal machine and also receive instruction from a qualified supervisor.

The program will be conducted at the High School weight Tuesdays from 7 to 9 p.m., and Saturday from 10 a.m. to 12 noon. It begins Tuesday, Feb. 27, and Saturday, March 3.

Interested males and females may register by calling the Recreation Office at 383-6791. The fee for the six-week program is $6 per person.

Blake's Work At Art Center

The life and work of Turner and Blake will be the subject of the fifth film showing in the "Romantic Rebellion" series narrated by Kenneth Clark Sunday, Feb. 18 at 4 p.m. at the South Shore Art Center.

These outstanding films are part of the Civilization Series shown on national television to wide critical acclaim. The films are part of an on-going program entitled "Sunday at the Center" and are followed by tea and informal discussion.

The public is invited.

CHS Icemen Fall To Hull, 6-5

Despite a rousing third period rally, the Cohasset hockey team was shaded last week by Hull, 6-5.

The Pirates jumped out to a 6-3 lead, but the Skippers pulled within one goal late in the final frame, then pulled goalie Bill Hollis for a sixth skater with 15 seconds remaining. Hull, however, thwarted Cohasset's assault to preserve the win.

Hull took a 3-0 first period lead, then opened the margin to 4-0 in the second period before Cohasset got on the board twice.

The Skippers outscored the Pirates in the last period 3-2, but it was too late and too little. Cohasset's record slipped to 5-3.
